well CLEAN AIR MACHINES

The usual method of removing bad air is to open the windows or turn on the exhaust fans. However, every time you exhaust this dirty, smoky air, you're also exhausting valuable — and very expensive — heated or cooled air. Stop wasting energy! Clean the air instead with a Honeywell Clean Air Machine.

The Clean Air Machine removes up to 95% of the dirt, dust, smoke and pollen from the air, then recirculates the electronically-cleaned air throughout the room.
